

Louise Woolworth

September 21, 1916 - August 23, 2012

WOOLWORTH, LOUISE Woolworth, Louise (Fisher, Kreuter). Age, 95, passed away on August 23, 2012 at her residence in Albuquerque, NM. She is survived by her daughters, Jeanne DiNunzio and Toni Leech, son Douglas Fisher, five grandchildren and four great grand children. Louise was the original flower girl at the first Trader Vic's restaurant in Oakland, CA. She went on to become the Head Hostess and worked at Vic's for 20 plus years. She then worked for 26 years as the Head Hostess at Spenger's Fish Grotto in Berkeley, CA. We all cherish the memories of her humor and fondness for telling great stories. Both family and friends remember her as a loving and caring wife, Mother and friend. She has enriched the lives of everyone and is loved and missed dearly. Memorial Service will be held on Monday, September 3, 2012 at 3:00 p.m. at French Mortuary, Westside Chapel, 9300 Golf Course Rd. NW. Please visit our online guestbook for Louise at RememberTheirStory.com. FRENCH 9300 Golf Course Rd. NW (505) 897-0300

“ "Uncle Bob" was my dad's youngest brother. My wife, Rudi, and I attended Bob's and Louise's wedding In Berkeley, CA., and we enjoyed their company when they lived Walnut Creek, CA. Louise was a perfect companion for Uncle Bob, and we were happy that they had good times together. We, too, remember their shared sense of humor.

“ Wonderful memories of Auntie Louise and family. I remember when we would go to Spengler's with Uncle Charlie and he would always give a funny name to the person taking party names knowing Auntie Louise, his sister, would be calling names over the loudspeaker. Then we would hide in the crowd and Auntie Louise would announce, "Mr. Hammerhead and Party" or "Mr. Tunafish and Party". Auntie Louise would spontaneously say the name, pause, realize it was her crazy brother and say, "Charlie you did it again."
