

Marcella Sargent Sly

June 14, 2014

Age 82, a resident of Albuquerque since 1956, passed away on June 14, 2014, surrounded by the family she loved. Marcy was born in Strawberry Point, Iowa, and is survived by her husband of 62 years, Wayne L. Sly, whom she met while roller skating as a teenager; her children Kristina Sly-Linton and husband Terrence Linton of Albuquerque; and Rodney W. Sly and wife Lisa Sly of Albuquerque; and two grandchildren, Victoriana Sly-Linton and Conner W. Sly. Marcy devoted her time and energy to her family and friends, and she loved the holidays and cooking. She and Wayne have been avid Lobo sports fans since 1958. In lieu of flowers, please make donations for the stained-glass project at First Methodist Church, 314 Lead Ave. SE, Albuquerque, NM 87102.

Tribute Wall

CK

“ Rod,
I never knew your mother, but she raised a fine son ... so she must have been alright! My heart goes out to you and your family.
Cynthia Klaila

Cynthia Klaia - June 24, 2014 at 09:12 AM

DI

“ Wayne and Family,

I am truly saddened to hear of Marcy's passing. I remember her bright smile and bubbly personality so well, and the fun times we all shared at the apartments on Quincy.

I wish you comfort, peace, and loving memories to guide you through this difficult time. My thoughts are with you and your family.

Dianne Kious Turtletaub

Dianne - June 23, 2014 at 07:37 PM

NR

“ Marcy was the most thoughtful concerned person, always giving of herself. She was the greatest neighbor, often passing over the wall slices of pie, cake, extra fruit from the tress and extra garden vegetables. Marcy and Wayne were my daughter's extended family. Tracy would rush through opening her Christmas presents from Santa so that she could go to Marcy and Wayne's to watch the Sly family open their gifts.
Marcy, her kindness, her family are among my fondest memories.

Nancy Ruscetti - June 22, 2014 at 11:07 PM

SB

“ To Wayne,

So sorry to hear the passing of Marcy, she was a wonderful lady. I remember that you both were big Lobo fans. Marcy was so kind and friendly. Your kids were well mannered

Once I was in the neighborhood and stopped at the house and she insisted on me coming into the house. But, I was unable to visit more than a few minutes. Now, she is in heaven with the lord and I'll be praying for you being by yourself.

I lived around the corner on Snowheights, Kathy, Karen and Kevin were my children. They send their condolences.

Love in Christ,

Sandy Brown-Garcia

Sandy Brown-Garcia - June 21, 2014 at 07:33 PM

BE

“ Oh, Wayne, we are so, so sorry. You and Marcy hold such a special place in our hearts. I have such fun memories of her, starting with her tracking me down through Sharon so she could bring me her homemade Christmas cookies. She was always so cheerful, always smiling, inviting me to have a cup of coffee as we talked at the kitchen table. I will miss those wonderful conversations. Peace to you.

Barbara and Chuck

Barbara Exley - June 21, 2014 at 10:08 AM

DA

“ I remember she was always happy, always smiling and always in the best of moods. She laughed with such life. Everytime i see a sunflower i will think of her. Really nice lady. You couldn't ask for better neighbors as her and her husband. Best wishes to her family. I know as time passes things will get alittle easier for them each day to hold on to the memory in a happy way and go on with life and be happy as she would want them to celebrate life just like she did.

dave - June 21, 2014 at 09:08 AM