

Margaret "Peggy" Breece Seis

May 23, 2014

Margaret "Peggy" Breece Seis, passed away, Friday May 23rd. A loving and beautiful person in every way. Always wanting to help and never wanting to be a burden; she passed in the same way she lived, concerned for everyone else and being our calming cornerstone to her last words. She was preceded in death by two husbands, David "Kenny" Breece and William "Bill" Seis, both of whom were great men and well liked. Peggy is survived by her sister Gloria Belew; brother John Booker; daughter Mary Hawley and husband Mark, their daughter Josephine; son Casey Seis, his sons Kale and Cameron and numerous nieces, nephews, grandchildren and great grandchildren. We will miss her dearly.

Services will be held Tuesday, May 27th at 1 pm at Risen Savior Catholic Church. Interment will follow at Gate of Heaven Cemetery with a reception following at the church. In lieu of flowers, donations to Casa Angelica 5629 Isleta Blvd. SW Albuquerque, NM 87105 would have pleased her.

“ Dear Mary, Casey and family-

May God bless you in this time of grief. Your mom was such a beautiful, elegant and kind person. I know you'll miss her always. You're in our prayers, now and always.

God bless you; I love you-

“ Dear family and close friends of "Peggy",
I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. My deepest condolences. I too have lost a family member in death. And at times like this we may wonder if we will ever see our loved one again or if death is really the end. This article was really comforting, and gave us a real hope. <http://www.jw.org/en/publications/magazines/g200809/death-is-it-the-end/> I hope you too read it, and find the peace and comfort we did.
Sincerely, Takeisha
