“ I have very fond memories of Margaret & Bob when they had Bob White's Super Market. We lived across the street from the store, and from 1970 until it closed, my brother, sister and I were always over there getting milk, bread, and snacks. Margaret was always the cashier and would greet us with a smile and ask about my parents. She even hired my mom to cashier during a time when she was short-staffed. My mom loved Margaret to pieces.

Rest in peace, Margaret.

“ Dear Sherry and Vicki,
John and I and Bryan, Alison, and Shaun moved to Dakota and Kiowa in 1966 and when the movers had left off we went to Bob White's to stock up on groceries. Most places of business refused to cash checks on out of state accounts, but not your Daddy. He cashed our check and maybe several before we could transfer our account from El Paso.

That was the only place we ever shopped. It was wonderful to send the kids down on their bikes for small orders. Your mother always made them count their change so that they would learn not only to count change but to always check when receiving change.

We loved them and were so sad to see the pain your Daddy was in as he tried to walk around the store on those poor arthritic feet. It was a great day when he got his scooter and could go racing around without pain.

I still have the picture of Margaret behind the counter and me checking out my groceries on the last day before the store closed taken by the Albuquerque Journal. A sad day.

Many times since I moan to John as we try to find a parking place close to the big chain stores , "Oh, how I long to be able to pull into a place right by the porch and go into Bob White's."

As I told you, Vicki, those memories are dear to us because of the people in them. The words Paul wrote to the Philippians are so appropriate when we think of the gift God gave us in your folks," I thank my God in all my remembrance of you," and we would add, Margaret and Bob.

Bless you both as you say goodbye to that sparkly Mother of yours,
Love,
John and Carolyn Cox

“My family shopped at Bob White's for years when I was growing up near there. You can't imagine how much I miss that store, or Bob, and now Margaret. May God bless you Margaret.

“So sad to hear about Margaret. My son Kevin and I worked for them many years ago. Margaret was a wonderful Christian. We had gotten in touch again last year and I was so pleased that she had found a companion to help her through the battle. I know she is in Heaven with Bob. They loved each other so much. God bless and keep Sherrie, Vickie and all of the family.
