

Marianne D'Amico

October 27, 2014

Marianne D'Amico, age 72, flew from her broken and diseased body on Monday, October 27, 2014. She is survived by her loving spouse, Joni Bold; brother, Vini D'Amico; sister-by-choice, Cheryl Jones and husband Steven; loving cousins, many close friends and her beloved pooch, Tiamo. She was greeted by her parents, Vito and Faye along with dear aunts and uncles. Marianne was born in Bayonne, New Jersey, a place she always loved, later moving to San Diego where she spent 25 years. When she moved to Albuquerque in 1988, she felt that she was home. Marianne married her long-term fiancée of 24 years on Anini Beach on the island of Kauai, on February 20, 2014. During their time together, Marianne and Joni were world travelers going to many interesting places including Tahiti and other Polynesian Islands, Antarctica and Europe. She was very close with her cousins getting together annually for the famed "cousins reunions." During her seventeen-year professional career, Marianne was the business manager and backbone of Bold Financial Group. Both Nascar and the Yankees have lost a great fan! Marianne was a loving and caring person, living each day as close as possible to the embodiment of Aloha Spirit, something that is paramount to both she and Joni. Friends and family are invited to a gathering that will be held in her memory on Monday, November 10, 2014 at 11:00 a.m. at FRENCH - Wyoming, with a reception to follow. Her end of life experience was enhanced by her wonderful caregivers from Right At Home, Trinity Abernathy, Elaine Tripp, Dezaree Shane, Michelle Gonzales, Karen Kimes, and Christina Smith.

In lieu of flowers, should friends desire, memorial contributions may be made in her name to St. Dominic Academy, 2572 John F. Kennedy Blvd. W, Jersey City, NJ 07304.

“Marianne, as you gaze down at the Bella Luna, remember that I'm down here looking up at it. It will forever remind me of you and my beloved godmother, your mom. And as I listen to the oldies, the Platters and all that good stuff, I will be remembering you.

As a kid, you weren't always around. You had already moved to the west coast, but Grandma and Grandpa spoke so lovingly of you, that I felt that I knew you. You were always the topic of conversation, between my numerous chocolate milk shakes and ham sandwiches. You were so loved during life and will be for many years more. I guess that's what you meant when you said "Cient'anni" at every toast.

To think that the last time I saw you was a "chance" encounter at the Broadway Diner. Here's to chance, and to all the great conversations and love that we shared. God has blessed me with your presence in my life.

Joni, I wish you comfort during this trying time. You're an angel here on earth for all the care and comfort you gave Marianne, in sickness and in health.

“ Dear Marianne,

Thank God you have left so many happy beautiful memories of our friendship to live on in my heart. I remember sweeping the hair up in your Mom and Dad's Salon and afterward going to eat at the Diner. (And you would order Tongue or Ox Tail soup to freak me out.) I remember your Mom getting two beds for your room, so that I could sleep there. (My father would only let me stay at your house, because he trusted the goodness of your parents.) We had so many fun times bringing my nieces to play with Vinnie and teasing him about his breakfast baloney sandwiches, (or hot soup as he told Mrs. Fleischer). You helped me learn to swim at Arcola. Then there was Florida - when we went on our secret dates with two very different young men. From Woodrow Wilson to St. Dominic Academy - what a great journey! Sr. Rose Marie was our favorite. With Patsy and Doris we were the "four" Musketeers. Our Freshmen Dance with Vin and Dominick to our Senior prom with Butch and Pete were happy, if not confusing times. Your support during my Caldwell years was unprecedented. I remember how you and Joe rode to my rescue and whisked me to catch the very end of My cousin Jimmy and Marie's wedding Mass. You and Connie must be having a ball together laughing at all the fun times we shared. I wish you peace and happiness with all your loved ones with whom you are now reunited. Hug your Mom and Dad for me. John had the Grappa ready for your next visit, and even though I can't stand the taste, I'll drink it in your memory. You were truly my sister, and I will continue to cherish your memory, and pray for your eternal peace and happiness.

Joni I wish you healing for your broken heart and the peace that comes from knowing that Marianne's suffering is ended. Thank you for bringing her happiness.

Vinnie my sympathy is with you. You are loved, and John and I are here for you.

Till we meet again, Love, Marion and John

“ Dearest Comare Marianne:

Our friendship started in high school - St. Dominic Academy in Jersey City. After that, you were my Maid of Honor, and I was yours. So special. Our friendship has lasted for 55+ years, through thick and thin. We spent so many Christmases, Easters, and weekends together - sometimes just playing cards while eating Italian bread with cheese and salami and drinking wine - sometimes at a hotel and once at a dude ranch. You and Joe always brought Miccio, your loveable and affectionate cat. I remember sleepovers at your home and at ours. When our son, Kenneth, was born, we asked you and Joe to be his Godparents. Only two very special people could fill that bill should something happen to Ken and me. We'll never forget the wonderful 25th Anniversary Dinner Party you and Joe surprised us with. You were incredible friends!

Thank you so much for your beautiful, loving and caring friendship. You will always be in my heart as well as in my thoughts and prayers.

Bona sera, my dear Comare. May God keep you in his loving care.

Sincerest sympathy to Joni and Vinnie as well as the rest of Marianne's close family.

“ Ah, Paisan...your spirit, your gentle essence, your authentic being, your being present and attentive, and the fun times we always shared are but some of the attributes your cherished friendship have provided me with. You have inspired me, and by virtue of who you are, taught me so much. I miss you terribly and await your messages. I am blessed and honored to have had you in my life, and you have left a permanent imprint on my heart.
With love an respect.
