“ Although I didn't know Marshall very well, the times that I met him gave me enough of an impression as a very loving and gentle guy. Reading that his Cheyenne name was Sun Maker helps me understand why the picture we have of him seems to "Shine"!

“ It was an unexpected shock, to hear that Marshall had passed. Marshall was a man I spoke with on only a few occasions, but he was always warm, kind and happy. Our daughters have gone to school together since 5th grade, and have been friends who enjoyed birthdays and time spent with each other. I remember a birthday party of his daughter's, which my daughter Kali, was invited to. Man, that was an incredible party! There were tons of people, a bounce house with a giant slide, if memory serves, plenty of food and smiles throughout the house. He opened his home to many, and I know the kids all had a blast. I also remember one Halloween the girls spent together with a group of friends, in the neighborhood which Marshall and his family lived. Nearly every house had gone all out with decorations and spirit, and the streets were crowded with happy trick or treaters. Once again, a booming party at the White home, and everyone had fun. I can't imagine what his children and family are going through, but I wish for them strength, courage to get through this great heartache and in time, peace. I know they have a loving family to lean on, and I hope everyone who has been affected by this loss will find solace in knowing that Marshall is at peace. Deepest condolences, Marshall White will be dearly missed.

With Deep Sympathy,
Rachel and Kali

“ Our deepest sympathy to all of Marshall's family. We remember Marshall when he was a young boy who played soccer for the Chuska Warriors for many years. He played with our son, Donnie, and we share many delightful memories of those years. Marshall was a kind, friendly, and respectful young man. Our prayers go out to all who love him dearly. He will be sorely missed.

“ My condolences to Marshall's family; he was an inspiration to everyone he met. I knew Marshall both when he was a student and later when he was a staff person at UNM. His achievements and values reflected well on UNM and all who knew him. He was devoted to his family and friends, I will miss not seeing Marshall and Lauren together at the gym, “ Marshall will truly be missed. He was a delightful young man. He was a superb model for his oldest daughter, as well as his two youngest children. He was a wonderful student. But he shone as a great soccer coach.

“ Marshall always had a smile on his face. Never knew his tribe name was "Sun maker",but now that makes sense! He did make Sun wherever and to whomever he went and came across! Rest in peace, sweet soul.
