“ My Dearest Sweet Sister,

My deepest sympathy along with my heart goes out to you as a mother. As a mother you know that Matthew lives on in your heart, in your memories of him and will be with you always. Our heavenly father has chosen Matthew for a much greater purpose "don't ask why" but Amen for peace. I am with you in thought anytime you need to talk you call me I am here to listen.

Stephanie and T.J. - Aunt Wendy is here as well for you both and I extend my condolences. Honor your brother by being there for your mother and father with your love, understanding and support.

Isaiah and Nicole - Be strong and know that you have been blessed with a wonderful gift you and Matthew created. Prayers to you to be the best mother for your role with be as two now make Matthew proud.

I am glad I had the opportunity to meet my nephew Matthew and niece Stephanie; which, seems like ages ago when we went to my uncle's wedding in Albuquerque and we all got a chance to get to be re-acquainted for that I am grateful.

Jeff - I know you are there for my sister and thank you for all. You both have been through a lot together. I know you know this Jeff, daddy really liked you and he told me that he was happy and will had peace of mind that Cindy will have a wonderful life with you.

My love to you all,

This is my favorite Verse Matthew 5: 4

- Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.

May the Lord, the source of all consolidation, be comfort to you "ALL".

With Sympathy and Prayers My Sister, Jeff, Ted, Stephanie and T.J.

Wendy, Kiefer and Seth Shinaberry-Reeves
