“ Michael was very good friend to me at work with US Fish and Wildlife after losing my husband to a car accident. He would check up on me to see if I was ok in my office. He always brought his beautiful smile.....and make a joke to bring my spirits up. I really loved that about him. I really appreciated his friendship and support. He will be missed. Micheal you were a wonderful and great friend...I will miss you and going bowling with you too.

“ I'd like to extend my condolences to Mike's family for their loss. He always let us use his dorm room to hang out in whether he was there or not. I'll never forget you, buddy.

“ One of my best memories with Mike was when we were freshmen college roommates at UNM. We didn't know anyone in the dorm since pretty much everyone was from out of town. All it took for us to get everyone's attention from all three floors (including and most importantly the females upstairs) was Mike's music. Mike's encyclopedic knowledge of indie, grunge, rock, Nirvana, Weezer, Korn, old school, new school, EVERYTHING, if it was good music, it was playing--not to mention Mike's library of CD's in the room. Eventually, The whole floor drifted into our room within the first week mostly on account of the DJ-quality music flowing from our room. By the first month, I would say our room was the hub of entertainment for the building (and yes, we actually studied). Right up to the last time I spent time with Mike in the Fall, he was still playing the best music, working with Pandora--he just had the magic touch. Mike will be missed, a lot, and I know he touched a lot of lives, and my life has been and is better just because of him. Long live the legend of Michael Romero.

“ I went to high school with Michael and ran into him a few times over the years. When I think of him, kindness and a sweet sincerity/genuineness are my first thoughts. He truly was a good, kind, gentle soul and from all the memories people have written, it seems he shared this with everyone he met. I hope we can all keep a bit of his spirit with us and continue to bring a little bit of his joy into the world.
With love, lisa

“ I was deeply saddened by the news of Michael's passing. My heart felt condolences to you Darline, Bobby, Mr. Romero and family. I haven't seen Michael since we worked at the Atomic Museum together on KAFB, but I do have fond memories talking and laughing with him. I remember how Darline would light up when she would visit Michael in the museum store. They would both be laughing and enjoying each other's company. Always a gentlemen and fun to be around.
Sincerely, Tom Salazar

“ To The Romero family:
I read about Michael in the obits and wanted to share my condolence to the family. Being a Minister, one bible scripture that come's to mind is Isaiah 25 verse 8. There God promises to swallow up death forever. Years later when Jesus God's son walked the earth, he mention a similar point at John chap 5 verse 28. So as you cherish your dear memories of Michael, remember to pray for God's Kingdom to Come!

“ My sincere sympathy to Darlene, Ed, and the rest of Michael's family. I have not seen Michael for many years. I called him Mikey when he was a toddler and I had the pleasure of babysitting for him. Even then, his smile was infectious.

God Be With You.

“ My deepest sympathy and prayers go out to Michael's family at this time. I worked with Michael in contracting. He was a special person that cared deeply. It was a pleasure working with him. He sure did love talking about his golfing and KC Chiefs. He'll be missed.

“ I am so blessed to have had Mike in my life. He brought so much joy and laughter to everyone he touched. More so, he was such a strong, selfless, remarkable man who was always there for everyone who needed him. I will always admire his devout love for his family as there was nothing more important to him.

"In the end, it's not the years in your life that count. It's the life in your years." Michael truly accomplished so much in his life as he lived every day to its fullest.

Jesus said to her, " I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; and whoever lives by believing in me will never die.

“ Mike was one of my best friends in middle school and high school. He was always the best skateboarder out of our group and his laughter was infectious. No matter what it was Mike did he excelled at it and had fun while doing so. It's been a while since I have talked to him and I will miss him dearly.

“ I feel honored to have known Mikey and I have and will always consider him my brother. I have so many fond memories with Mike, like playing Chicken Foot on the holidays with the family. Of course he'd tease me and laugh, and I would just laugh and tease back. One of my favorite memories is when Darline and I wrapped a rock in a box for a fake birthday present just to tease him. He was SO excited and wondered what was in the box - only to find out that it was a rock. I remember his confused face that shortly turned into smiles and laughter. I am going to miss everything about Mike, but most of all his ability to make others laugh. I loved Mike dearly and I'm going to miss him so much. <3
