“ You will truly be missed Everybody always says how much we look alike, I hope I get to be as beautiful as you were. I still remember when I went go see you in arlington. I wished I would have got to say goodbye, but I know in my heart you know I did. I will always love you & we will meet one day. Now you are dancing with the angels & free of pain. Love your little jackie..

“ Monica and I met at work and became friends instantly. I'd heard of her illness and had been praying for her. She was so very strong....Coming to work with her chemo bag and trudging through. She once said that if she didn't go to work it would be worse for her. She fought hard and always looked great during! She fought so hard that I had a t-shirt made for her that said, "I Make Chemo Look Good!" You bet she did. She is sorely missed. Aaron and Christopher - you were her world! She loved you from the bottom of her heart. Remember to cherish every sweet memory. Know that she is there with you. One day you will be together again. Until that time, be brave and trust in God to carry you every step of the way. I'll miss you sugar.

“ So many called you "Mo" but you were my "Mighty Mo"!! I think I got that right when I gave you that nickname. What a fierce and mighty warrior you were in your battle. You are an inspiration to those of us who watched your struggle. Ok Mo....I am sending you a hug.....did you get it?? Not yet??.....hold on.....there....you got it, I just know you did! Debbi Christian / PCI Industries Inc

“ *Monica, you were like my big sister when I was younger. I remember when we were in Clayton, and you'd take me around with you everywhere, and showed me how fun life is. Your loving heart warmed & touched all that was in your life ! I know you're now an Angel to all, and smiling peacefully upon us. I miss and love you so much! Thank you for being a part of my life...
