

Myron Reynolds

January 25, 2015

Myron Reynolds went to join his beloved wife, Marvel on January 25, 2015. Myron was a longtime resident of Albuquerque and left behind many old friends. He wishes them all well and hopes they will join him and Marvel when they are ready. He was a great man who touched many lives in his own quiet way.

“ Myron was my great uncle... I had lost touch with him when my dad (his Nephew) passed in 2009. Myron & Marvel were the sweetest, most gentle people. They always had fun things & stories from their travels. I remember as a kid being so enamored by their turquoise jewelry. I still have a beautiful hand made jewelry box that Myron made. I think of him often and hope he is at peace being reunited with his beloved Marvel.
