“ I am so sorry about my friend, my coworker's death. Greg and sons were so important to her. we shared stories, experiences, laughed and cried all the time. I have always known this day would come but we are never prepared for any of this. My prayers go out to the family at this time. I always share my belief in Rev. 21: 3&4 when one day I hope to see Patsy again in the resurection. I am so grateful to Patsy's daughter in law who called me to come and see her and I will cherish the fact that although she did not know I was there it meant alot to me. My love and prayers go out to all of you.

“Hi, Greg, I am sorry to hear about Patsy's passing. When I ran into you at Smith's a couple of months ago, you shared that she was really suffering. I know it is a blessing to be out of the pain and suffering, but it is still a hard adjustment for you. I used to dialyse across from her at Freseneus. Jim Rathbun 980-9952

“Dear Sanchez Family: My condolences to you all. Patsy and I worked together for several years at Presbyterian Hospice. I will remember Patsy very fondly. She was a great help to me.....we worked well together and she contributed greatly to us doing a great job. I will think of her always as a friend and feel better for having known her. She will be missed, but I am grateful for having had her in my life. I don't think I ever knew Patsy when she wasn't in some kind of physical pain. She tried hard to not show her discomfort. I feel some comfort in knowing that now she is free from that pain and is able to skip, run and jump along with other family members and friends that have gone before her. Her spirit and all that she shared while here on earth will always be with those of us that are left behind. She is not far, but she is safe and pain free.

You are in my thoughts and prayers. Sincerely, Joni Ullery.

“ Uncle Greg, Nappy, Gregory, and your entire family, I am so sorry that I can't be there to show my love and support but I am thinking about you and especially Aunt Patsy. My heart is breaking but I know that she is with my mom right now. All my love, Eva
