A resident of Albuquerque since 1945, passed away May 16, 2014. He was born January 15, 1923 in Longmont, Colorado to Willie Ruth Adams Heggem and John Milford Heggem. His lifelong career began as a delivery boy for Albuquerque Blueprint Co., retiring as an officer and co-owner of the company. Upon retiring, he enjoyed working part-time as a realtor. Paul humbly served his community including the Albuquerque Jaycees, Boys Club of America, United Way, and the Albuquerque City Planning Commission. Paul's earlier years were filled with woodworking, singing, dancing, fishing, poker, the Dallas Cowboys, music, reading, photography and his beloved dachshunds. He was a good friend to many. Cremation has taken place. A memorial service will be held Thursday, May 29, 10:30 a.m. at FRENCH – Wyoming Chapel.
