ROBB, PEGGY HIGHT

Peggy Hight Robb, beloved wife of John D. Robb and mother, grandmother, great grandmother and talented artist died on May 8, 2014. Peggy was the devoted mother of John D. Robb, III, Celeste Robb-Nicholson, Ellen Bea Robb, Bradford Hight Robb, George Geoffrey Robb and David McGregor Robb. She dies leaving her loving husband of 68 years, and her children, as well as 20 grandchildren and 3 great grandchildren. A native New Mexican, Peggy (Margaret Celeste Hight) was born in Gallup, NM, September 14, 1924. While first a wife and mother, she had a passion for painting and was known for her attention to form, color and light. The New Mexico landscape was the backdrop for her prolific career as an artist. Peggy earned her bachelor's and master's degrees at the University of NM. Over her extraordinary career, painting in oil and acrylics, she showed her work in 18 national and international juried art exhibitions, including Paris and China. She also taught a course in drawing and painting at UNM for 21 years. When asked about her painting, she said: "I was born in a small town in New Mexico. This country of big sky, rugged mountains and broad panorama has strongly shaped my artwork. Each work is an adventure, an experience in medium, form and color. It is a celebration in response to my love of God's creation. These works are intended to evoke a joy and spiritual uplift in the viewer." Peggy found the world a beautiful place, and was devoted to nurturing that beauty through gardening and landscaping her home, treating each planting, (especially her father's roses) with tenderness, respect and joyful appreciation of its beauty. Her funeral service will be celebrated on Saturday, May 17 at 10:00 am at Heights Cumberland Church, 8600 Academy NE, Albuquerque, NM.

“ My sincere sympathy goes out to the whole family, especially to John. I will always remember Peggy's bright smile and sweet welcome. Though we only met once a year at the UNM concerts, she made one think you were her best friend. At the end her sweetness and smile remained the same, though she may not have known just who I was anymore, I got a hug and we chatted a bit and both felt happy for a while. Barbara Witemeyer

“ John,
Kathy and I will be praying for God's comfort as you grieve the loss of your beloved best friend. We can only try to imagine the loss of your closest confidant in family, firm, and faith as you journeyed together for nearly 70 decades.

I also want to say thank you for the concrete ways you have enriched my life and faith. As a nationally-recognized leader in our profession, an exemplary lawyer who truly lives Micah 6:8, as devoted husband and father, you been a stellar example to me and many in so many areas. But today I think about the 1 Peter 3:7 clinic you led throughout your life in loving Peggy and honoring her and God's call to covenant-keeping right up to the finish line in this world.

John I think you know that your vision, passion, energy, and leadership are the reason CLC does legal aid. But you may not know that it was your clear vision and compelling challenge at a lunch meeting in the Gammon & Grange conference room, that was the direct inspiration for G&G launching GSA nearly a decade ago.

With our loving condolences and prayer,

Chip

John: May your happy memories help to lessen the grief you have experienced. It worked for me 27 years ago.
