“ I knew Phil when we were both employed by BDM. We shared many an adult beverage commuting to and from California. He was a fine man, without pretensions. I am reminded of an appropriate Italian fighter pilot's greeting: "In Bocca al Lupo". Peace, my friend.

“ Mr. B was one of the finest men I have known... a good man, good husband and father. He was surrogate dad to a huge group of kids who were coming of age in the late 70's, one of whom was me. He was always kind, steady, friendly, while at the same time, giving us kids silent instruction on how to live a good life. He was an ethical and morale man, and a strong patriarch of an amazing family. I have known them most of my life. I have them in prayer now, glad in the knowledge of that coming happy day when through the miracle of Christ, we will all meet again and there will be no more tears. My heart goes out to Mrs. B , Brynnie, Brian, Jill, Diana, Colette and the whole family for their loss. God bless and strengthen you all.

“ Phil was such an inspiration to everyone he met. We didn't know him very long but were quickly drawn in by his witty sense of humor and the way he would just listen to a conversation, taking in what people had to offer and then would enlighten all of us by some form of wisdom only his brilliant mind would create! He will be missed but we know we share the faith and belief that he is dancing with Jesus and is reunited with so many he loved! We love the picture you chose to share. It completely embodies the beautiful man Phil was. All our love. Larry and Mary Slemp

“ Phil was one of those "Seven Day a Week Christians" that we had the privilege of knowing. St. Paul's's will not be the same without him! He was loved by so many, including Jerry and JoAnn Long.
