“ I just recently learned of Ray's passing and wish to convey my deepest sympathy to Mrs Cain and family. Our husbands, Ray and Jim, were hunting partners in the early years. Although it has been many years, you have always been close in thought and pray.Perhaps, Jim and Ray are again passing time with stories of hunting days gone by. Jim passed in 2009.

“ I had the pleasure to work for Ray twice a week for 8 years. His great sense of humor made my day.and will miss talking about camping and other stories of his life. My he be in a place where he is forever happy and smiling down on all of us. I will continue to work for Theo and keep the memory of Ray alive in our thoughts

“ I would like to express my deepest condolences to your family. I hope you find comfort from God’s word the bible during this time of grief. For he is near to those broken at heart. Ps 34:17,18 Also, note Jesus’ words of comfort spoken to Martha, who had just lost her brother, at John 11:23-25, “Jesus said to her: “Your brother will rise. Martha said to him: “I know he will rise in the resurrection on the last day.”Jesus said to her: “I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life.”
