“ On behalf of my father, Bonifacio Garcia, and our entire family please accept our condolences at the passing of Mr. Salinas. My father shared a unique history as both men were born and reared in Guadalupe County, served in the U.S. Army in the same regiment (but different platoons) and reared their families in the community of Our Lady of Fatima Church. May you find solace with the assurance that his was a life well-lived.
Joanna, I welcome your contact if you would care to share memories.

“ I am very sorry about the loss of Reynaldo, please accept my condolences. Gods word the bible gives a beautiful hope for the future at Revelation 21:3,4 where God promises to bring an end to death. No more death along with what Acts 24:15 states means a wonderful future for us and our loved ones. I hope that you find some comfort during this time
