“ I will always remember Robert in his slacks and ties, even when he was just sitting around the house watching TV. I remember asking him about it one day, and he told me that was how men were supposed to dress. I find joy in knowing that Robert isn't suffering any longer, and that hopefully he now has his car that he always spoke of driving. Robert you will truly be missed greatly, by all of those that have had the pleasure of meeting you!

“ Robert was one of the first people I started to work with when I joined Arca, I always loved that he liked to joke around with me. I also admired that he was always wanting to work and hold a job. I was very happy when he was able to have his own candy stand. I think he would of kept working till the day he died if he could of. I feel bad I couldn't be there for the funeral, but I was here working at the Stanford house where he once lived. I'm glad I got to have known him. God bless you Robert.-Greg Baca

“ I was fortunate to spend a little over a year getting to know Robert. He was a "dapper" man with "sparkly blues" (as I called them) right up until his final days. I am very glad that Robert is, without a doubt, in a place that he can call home with a smile on his face. I hope that all his friends, family and staff can find peace knowing Robert is at peace:)
