“ *Dear Garcia Family,
I have wonderful memories of "Mr. Garcia" when I used to spend time at your house while growing up in the neighborhood with Lisa. He was such a gentle man and he always made me feel welcome in your home. Please accept my sincere condolences on your loss. I regret I can't attend the rosary and funeral, as I am in Tucson with my mom, but I pray for comfort during this difficult time.*

“ To all the Garcia Family. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.

Uncle Robert was a very special and kind man. I remember when he would go visit my mom he would never go empty handed. Always took her something. She loved that. He is at peace now with all his siblings.
