“ To the children and children's children of Bob House Sr., I just want you to know how I saw things. He warmly touched everyone's lives he met, with his smile and wit, but he truly seemed to care when he would ask, "how's the family?". His generation came up hard and through some of America's worst and best of times which did not include a 'soft love', this is evident in his children. He was not perfect by any means but he raised his five beautiful, health and extremely intelligent children with 'his' kind of love. He made sure you all went to college and beyond. You have glorious careers because of his tenacity in you. You all have some of the highest standards in the work force today because of his hardness. His patriotism was without a fault. I believe you are all a lot like your father, not perfect but are you as willing to forgive as he? I saw him in this way, asking forgiveness from the family he gave his all to. A man can give himself in just so many ways. I do hope each of you can except that he gave what he knew to, whether it was skiing behind a boat, crewing for the hot air balloon team for a decade or just helping pay for your first house.
The man was bigger in a lot of people's eyes than you may ever know, but then each of you are bigger than you may know because of him. He was not perfect we all knew, but then who is? I know he just asked to be a forgiven man, father, friend.

“ Bob was a great friend of my mother - Sadie Glenn. They met soon after she moved to ABQ in 1994 thru the Winrock "mall walkers." I then got to know Bob and Terri after visiting with the walkers periodically. Their friendship lasted for years, with Bob and Terri attending several birthday parties for my mother both at Rosemary's and my home and at the Landmark Apartments. At some point we sort of lost close contact, about the time my mother had to move to Atria assisted living. Then, within a year or so, Bob also moved to Atria. My mother, Rosemary, and I were all so pleased to get to visit with Bob and Terri again. My mother passed in June 2013 and now our friend Bob is gone. We will always remember that great friendship that made my mother's move from GA to ABQ so smooth. Best to Bob's family. Terri, please call when you get a chance, 299-6690. Pleas and Rosemary Glenn
