“ Veronica I would like to Thank You for calling me about your Mother. She was a fantastic neighbor. she would answer her phone no matter what time I would call her. One morning around 3 am I called her & asked her to come outside to watch the meteors, so the 2 of us were outside in our PJ's on the north side of your house looking up. I loved her and I miss her with knowing that I will see her again. God Bless you and your family

“ My first memory of Rosemary was when a kid hit me in the head with a lunchbox on my way home from Gov. Bent Elementary. Another kid I was with took me to the Martinez's so Rosemary could look at my bleeding head. She stopped the bleeding and had Louie and Kathy, if i remember right, take me home. My mother asked Louie if his kid smacked me. Where upon my older sister said " mom this is Kathy and her father! " My older brother Rick was dating Kathy! What followed was a lot of fishing with our fathers and evening coffee for our parents. Louie saved me more than once after my father died and Rosemary was a wealth of knowledge for home remedies for humans and animals alike. You don't find people like this anymore. Good Times! “ I met Rosemary through her two wonderful daughters in high school. She was always warm and welcoming and I remember sitting at the kitchen table with her massaging my shoulders as she joked and laughed with us. She and all the family were great friends that I will always remember fondly from my high school days and she will always live in my heart as someone it was my pleasure and privilege to have had in my life. Whenever I hear her song , Love Grows Where My Rosemary Goes it brings a smile to my face!
