“ I've always looked at Russell and his brothers as the older brothers I never had. Every time me and Christine came to visit New Mexico we loved going to Pams to hang out with our cousins and play with them. Russell was always so protective of us. I will always remember that. Rest in peace russell I love you

“ I can actually remember Russell coming into the world, Damien and I were very curious! And although he was like my little brother, he very quickly showed me it was the opposite! He was My BIG little brother - and still the daring, show off, no hiding back kiddo. I remember one time when he and Damien and I were playing Nintendo in my room (yup, we're that old!) and my mom was getting something out of the dryer (bending over and putting in work gathering loads of laundry) to which, Russy remarks: "That Butt, That Butt, that BIG OLE BUTT!" And if you knew my mom... Well....I'm sure she's hugging one of her favorite Mincey Boys up in heaven as we grieve. Rest in Paradise!

“ First time I saw Russell he was just a baby sleeping on Donna's couch (babysitter). He was so beautiful, I just wanted to pick him up. I see he grew into a beautiful man. I am so sorry for everyone's loss, Pam Jerone, Damien, Darius. Our thoughts and prayers are with you.
