

Sandra Eva Ferrales-Chavez

October 17, 1980 - October 6, 2013

FERRALES-CHAVEZ, SANDRA EVA

The sun has set on a beautiful flower that lived underneath a turquoise blue sky. Sandra went to be with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ on October 5, 2013. Born in 1980, she is survived by her children Joseph Ronquillo, Jerry Chavez, Jr., and Isaiah Chavez; parents Maria and Ramon Ferrales; brothers Jose Alvarez, Waldo Duran, and Michael Ferrales; aunt Emma Sanchez and cousins Sylvia Dean, Frank Sanchez, and Yolanda Sanchez-Alley and husband Peter Alley, Nannette Thompson, and Amanda Marquez; and friend Amy Chavez. She is also survived by so many special family members and friends too numerous to mention here. Sandra Chavez was a remarkable woman, a woman after God's own heart. Her church home was a very important part of her walk with God. She was a faithful volunteer, she started in the children's ministry approximately 5 ½ years ago, and then became an usher and soon became a leader in her church. She was a prayer warrior, with a grateful heart. She would rejoice when she would witness someone receive Jesus as their Lord and Savior for the first time. She was a wonderful mother, who loved her boys with her whole heart. They were her most cherished treasure. Sandra was the most selfless person we've ever known. Her smile would light up a room. She always saw the best in people and knew how to make anyone feel so important and special. Her spirit could NOT be broken, nor her faith be shaken. She will be deeply and genuinely missed. So until we see you again, run into your Saviors arms. You are finally FREE baby girl. We love you. A celebration of Sandra's life will be held Monday, October 14, 2013, 10:30 a.m. at Legacy Church, 7201 Central Ave. NW.

“ i am so very sorry learn of Sandra's death. I didn't know about it until today, August 2, 2014. Sandra was one of "my kids," back at Taft Middle School where I was a counselor, so many years ago now. I have never forgotten her and have thought of her often. Although her death was so very, very tragic--I was so glad to read that she knew the Lord and to see the pictures and read the tributes to the beautiful woman she grew up to be. I wish I could've been there to see her myself, and although this is late-it is never too late to express sympathy.

My deepest condolences to her sons, her family, and to Amy.

*Love in Christ,
Shelley Euler-Beaudet aka "Miss Euler"*

“ I send my condolences to the family and friends of Sandra. It's a comfort to read what God says about those who have died. John 5:28,29 gives me comfort along with Psalms 37:29. I hope that the words of God will bring a level of comfort during this time.

“ Happy Birthday today my beautiful friend..... May you rest in peace with all the angels and our heavenly father. I will truly miss you. Every time I hear that song" I can only imagine I will always think of you. You were such an amazing person and a great inspiration to me. I remember the first time you took me to Legacy and on the way there we were jamming out to a Christian CD and when that song came on I can only imagine I just broke down... You prayed with me and I knew everything was going to be ok. I was not in a good place at the time but since that day because of you my dear friend and Angel I have been on the right path with God in my life..
R.I.P my dear Friend you will always and forever be in my heart.....

“ My heart is so saddened at the loss of our dear friend, Sandra. She was so beautiful and bubbly! My husband and I would often go to Village Inn and she would always run up to us and sit us at her area. We shared many conversations and the one thing that impressed me so much was the love she had for her boys. It was obvious that she lived for them and loved them with all her heart. We will miss her beautiful face for a while, but the memories we shared will be for a lifetime! It is so beautiful to know how much she loved the Lord and it gives us peace that we will see her once again! Our prayers to the boys and to her family, that they will find comfort in knowing that Sandra is dancing on the streets of gold singing to her Savior!!

“ My prayers and heartfelt condolences to Joseph, Jerry, Isiah, and the Ferrales/Chavez family for the loss of their mother, daughter, grand-daughter, sister, aunt, cousin, and niece. Sandra was a special person, who didn't allow the challenges of life to dampen her light. Her contagious smile, kindness, and friendly demeanor touched so many peoples lives-mine included. Thank you Lord for your beloved daughter Sandra. May her light shine through us for her children and her family during this difficult time. I ask this in Jesus name, Amen.

“ I first met Sandra at ladies night with bunch of women from Legacy church. From then on whenever I saw her at east campus or central campus she always made it a point to hug me to ask me how I was doing. she was so loving, always smiling and just had a way of making me feel special. she had such a presence about her. I can still see her worshipping and dancing at church praising God with her whole heart. On Facebook I remember her posting lyrics from a song; Here I am to worship. "I'll never know how much it cost to see my sin up on that cross" she was a beautiful person with a beautiful spirit. Sandra I will miss your smile, your heart.

“ So devastating, I knew Sandra from church, I remember well the first time I met her. I was new to Legacy Church, she recognized this, and approached me one day before services. She hugged me, welcomed me and her smile was genuine. Every time I saw her, She was always smiling! What a beautiful, genuine woman. My heart breaks for her boys, so tragic. She's in the arms of our Lord and Savior, and will forever be watching over all those she loved. ?

“ My dear beautiful friend/sister Sandra in Christ,

Your joyful selfless love for me and many will miss your presence for a moment and we too shall come home soon. You were a Proverbs Beautiful Young Vibrant Lady who Loved Her Father Almighty!

Proverbs 31:29-30

29“Many women do noble things, but you surpass them all.”

30 Charm is deceptive, and beauty is fleeting; but a woman who fears the Lord is to be praised.
