“ I just found out about Sandy's passing. I know what you all went through was not easy. She must have seen her friend and my sister, Margie DeAloe by now. I hope they are sewing together.

“ Love you, Nana. I still make your Harvest Loaf Cake every year—I like to call it our "secret family recipe" even though it's just a little thing. I work for a quilting company now, I know you would have loved that! We would have had lots to talk about. I like to think you might have taught me to sew if I'd asked.

“ I never realized what an impact Mom made in my life until now. She was always Mom to me. The best mother-in-law in the world. She knew me so well and always took my phone calls even when she wasn't feeling well. She understood me in ways the no one else did. I love her with my whole heart and miss her more than words can say. I know we will see each other again and until then this is not goodbye but just see you later Mom.

She did love you, Penny. I am glad you two had such a close bond. She WAS a natural Mom, wasn't she? A great example for us.

“ We are shocked and saddened to learn about Sandy. Such a beautiful lady, always filled with such joy, happiness and kind words to share with anyone she met. Our hearts go out to Gordon, JR and David, and families, and especially to June, Carol and Eva. May God keep all of you in the Shelter of His Arms. God Bless you Sheila and Woody

“ I can remember so many wonderful memories of my beautiful and talented Aunt Sandy. I was always so impressed with her sewing, baking, cake decorating and cooking. We were always swapping recipes... Emailing one another a delicious new one to try out. I loved her with my whole heart and was blessed to be part of her family. I am grateful to know she is with Jesus and that we will see one another again. I love you, beautiful lady. You will not be forgotten, you will be missed.

Thank you for sharing. She really did enjoy the recipes you shared. She loved to bake and I loved to eat it. :)

Sandy use to always say that Tris should of been her daughter cause they both like cooking so many different things or baking. My daughter is more like her aunt Sandy than she is like me! But that's a good thing.

“ Sandy was loved by so many, she was a very special person who loved God with all her heart. I couldn't ask for a more loving sister as Sandy was, we had so many good times together. She is now home with our Lord and a long over due gathering with mom, dad and so many loved ones who have went on before us. Sandy, I have a hole in my heart with your passing but you are now with our Lord Jesus Christ. Love you always your sis Easter
