“Wow I still can't get it in my head and heart that my grams is gone. She was the queen and king of our castle, she's the glue that held us together. She taught us so much without even knowing, maybe she did know it. I hope so. I have all these questions going through my mind, it's so hard g-ma without you. One thing I do know is, a few days before she died she didn't want me to go to work and I told her why not g-ma? She said cause I love you so very much , I love you and you help me so much and i don't want you to leave. So that at least is the best thing I got from my grandma. I love you Grammy and will never forget you.

I didn't get a lot of time with Tia Sara, but I can truly say anytime I went to visit I felt loved and like I belonged... I was family. I was so lucky to be born into this wonderful family, I will miss that feeling. Even though I live so far away and didn't see her often, I loved my Tia. I will miss her.
