“ So many memories that go clear back to children at Fruit Ave Baptist Church. Especially in the children's choir under the direction of Ward Finley. Sharon so loved her Lord and Savior and she is now in His presence. I will miss our telephone chats. We are out of town and missed the service, but Richard, ypu and family are in my prayers.

“ I always loved the smile that was on Sharon's face when I saw her. She had a peace from God that carried her through; it was so obvious that the relationship between them was real, close and brought such joy to Sharon's heart. She loved to sing praises to her Lord! She will be missed by all who knew her. Richard, please know that you are in our thoughts and prayers.
