“ ELISA, MARVIN, MICHELE. Words cannot begin to express the loss of Simon. He was a fantastic person. He treated people with dignity and respect and was a great teacher. A pillar of knowledge that he willing shared with others. I worked with him for 16 of the 21 years that I was in LA with NAPA. He was a good teacher and protected his people.He had firm beliefs and carried them through. We worked late into the evening many times and he was always there with us.. He was always there to share good times, tough times with his crew. He will be missed tremendously by many,, especially those of us who worked closely with him and shared his friendship.Our prayers are with you the Family and His soul. Rest in peace my Brother. TINO {big T} and family.

“ Dear Family and Friends,

I'm sorry for your loss. I just wanted to leave you with an encouraging scripture that has helped me deal with the loss of a loved one. It is found in the Bible Book of Romans 6:23 and it reads, "For the wages sin pays is death, but the gift God gives is everlasting life by Christ Jesus our Lord."

“First, let me express my most sincere condolences to you Eliza, Michelle, and Marvin on the loss of your dear husband and father. I pray that you might find peace and contentment as you remember Simon fondly for the wonderful man that he was. I remember him as a great leader and sometimes stern, but only in the sense that he was so concerned for those he loved and cared for, and I can humbly consider myself in that category.

I recall so many years that Simon and I worked together, but specifically the years I worked under him at NAPA Wilmington. At this point he has been the best supervisor I have ever had. He taught me so much about the business, trained me to manage a store myself, all the while being a terrific leader and at the same time someone I could call friend. He truly treated me as a son and I will always cherish the memories of the time we spent at work and at rest. Cheers to you my friend!

So to the entire Ortega family; I thank you for sharing Simon with so many that loved him and looked up to him and admired him. The world is truly a sadder place without him. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Simon was a great friend, mentor, and confidant to many people in the NAPA LA organization. He was one of the first contacts I had in my early career and helped me navigate so I could be as successful as possible. I loved him like a father, and like that we sometimes argued, yet I always had the utmost respect for the man. We certainly had plenty of good times too working long hours yet truly enjoying our work. Hard to imagine but we found time for an adult beverage from time to time too. Simon was a great manager and leader, not just of parts but most importantly a great leader of people. He'll be missed yet always will I have fond and positive memories of my time spent with Simon. Through my relationship with Simon I inherited a brother in Marvin. My thoughts & prayers are extended to the entire family.
