“ Terri, you are the image of a true servant. Content to be serve behind the scenes, not seeking your own applause. You always made me and mine feel special and cared for, creating memories and that sense of belonging and well being which are the essence of life. I'm thankful to God for your life here on earth and I pray we all see again after rehearsal. I'll keep an eye on Laura & Zach ;-)

“ Although I didn't know Terri personally, we saw her at Mass all the time, attending with her daughter and grandson. Our deepest sympathy to her family.

“ I am saddened that I lost a very close friend. She was so kind and giving, especially with her time. I met her when she was a PALlet, where she volunteered at the Police Athletic League. We became close friends since we both loved country music (especially George Strait). We went country dancing all the time. No matter whom I was dancing with or were ever I was in the club, when the band started to play Amarillo By Morning that was my cue to find Terri and dance with her. My heart goes out to Laura and her son. She was an amazing person and will be missed dearly.

“ I was very saddened to hear about Terri. We square danced with her many years ago and then had the opportunity to reunite while she was working in the theatre. She was such an amazing and truly sweet person. My heart goes out to her family.

“ ...just a fantastic woman, all about the theatre, many, many nights. Thank you Terri for your great and unending support for the theatre and your unending positive support for people. You were not too old to die young and we will miss you. Maybe our greatest memory was your work on the Buddy Holly Story - great. Peace.

“ One of the things Terri had a passion for was volunteering at the Albuquerque International Balloon Fiesta. She helped hundreds of media, frown around the world, feel welcome at the annual event. Her smile and kind heart are two of many attributes that will be remembered and missed. My deepest condolences to Terri's family.

“ Terri.... always a smile on her face and in her heart as she sat at the props table off stage making sure all the actors had exactly what they needed to enter into the lime light. A solid force from behind the scenes that helped us hold so many wonderful productions together. You'll live on forever in our hearts and memories... Vicki Singer
