“ DEAR TOM,

Today your family and friends are gathered to bring you to your final and most honored resting place. We are each in our own way, remembering the times we have shared with you. We know you are here with us because we can feel you in our hearts. We are sad because we miss you, but we also know your physical presence was weary and God wanted to bring you home. As you look down upon us, you know you were loved by many. Your beloved wife, Dorothy, will now fill her days with the wonderful memories she spent with her only love, Tommy. Your sons will cherish the times they learned valuable lessons from their Dad, the man they admired and looked up to. I will miss that gruff man with a soft heart. We are proud of the man you were and the legacy you leave behind. Our wish for you is that God has raised you up on eagle's wings and is letting you soar the skies with mighty strength. He will forever hold you in the palm of his hand.

We love you always!
