“ Young Tim, we are profoundly sad right now for your family, so many emotions for them in your very sudden passing. They know, we know, that God must have needed you right away. You answered that call to duty. We pray that you'll keep a watchful eye over all concerned... and we believe our paths will cross again.

“ My little brother.... The hardest part is hearing myself say I've lost my brother... and knowing that its true. I close my eyes and I see your baby blue eyes and your perfect smile. I know your spirit.. kind, loving, protective, and carefree. When I think about seeing you for the last time with all your medals and looking so sharp in your uniform.. It comforts me to know I have a bada soldier protecting me everyday. You lived your life I like to think about that too. You were a go getter. I hadnt thought about not being around until you were gone.. I'm sorry. I could've been a better sister instead of running away from my family. You taught me a good lesson here and I thank you for that. I don't know how to really say goodbye so I won't instead Ill tell you .. I love you forever in my heart, dance with the stars, gone but never forgotten, and if my stairway comes Ill find you there. Love you little brother boo till the next time I get to see you. xoxoxo

“ Dear Heather and Family, Look back on the life you shared. Cherish your memories always. Look back on the special days that you spent together. The love you created will always remain in your heart. Take comfort in those around you, those who care. May God be very near you at this time of deepest sorrow. To comfort you and grant you strength to meet each tomorrow.

“ We know Scott, Pam, and Brooke from being their neighbors for years. We know Tim as Brooke's brother. Clearly he has touched the hearts of many in his young life, and we want to express our sorrow to his entire family and friends at his passing. He is, forever, now an angel guarding over all of you, and I have no doubt that he will hold that post with all of the passion, intensity, and love that he has every other post he has held in the past. Please do not hesitate to let us know if there is anything at all we can do for you guys - all we can do is offer our support in this time of sorrow! Paula, John, Jake, and Sara Whisenhunt
