November 19, 1946 - January 27, 2013

Today we say goodbye to our beloved wife, mother, grandmother, and best friend. Linda was relieved of her pain January 27, 2013 after a valiant and dignified battle with lung cancer. She was preceded in death by her son Gregory. Surviving are her husband of 45 years James; son, Kevin and wife Emily; daughter, Ashley; three grandchildren, who were the center of her life, Logan, Aidin, and Camden; her mother, Viola Singletary; brothers, Chuck Stanford, Walter Singletary, and sister, Linda Patterson. A celebration of her abundant life will be held at a later date with details to follow. I wish to thank all of our family, friends, and acquaintances for your kind thoughts and prayers during her protracted battle. In lieu of flowers, please make donations in her memory to the Good Shepard Center homeless shelter.

“ Dear Jim and kids: I was just looking up Linda's name on Facebook, trying to reconnect, when I read her obituary. I remember you and she, with my husband Jerry and I, seeing the original "Poseidon" movie. Must have been the 60s or 70s. Linda was such a good person, and made me laugh every time we met up again over the years, when I'd come to Albuquerque for a visit. You have my deepest condolences. I know you'll all miss her.

“ Dear Jim and Family, WE WERE SO SORRY TO READ ABOUT LINDA. SHE WAS SUCH A NICE PERSON. she was wild about her grandchildren. I had not seen Linda for quite some time when we met at Costco. Linda never changed and Iknew her right away. We kept meaning to get together but time went by. We hope time will ease the pain but we will always have our love ones in our heart.

“ Miss Linda, You are going to be missed by family and friends who had the great pleasure of having known your Love, Grace and Generosity through the many years of your Life. We wish there were more trips to take and memories to make, but that was not to be. However, your courage showed us how to enjoy everyday--the good days and the not so good days! God Speed Dear Friend Love, Gene and Judi

“ Dear Jim, Ashley & Logan, Kevin & Emily and Aiden & Camden~Words cannot convey the deep sadness we feel for your loss. I know this has to be such a difficult time for you all, but hope you are able to find comfort in knowing that Linda no longer suffers. She was brave and valient in her fight to be with you all for as long as she could and the dignity with which she faced her ordeal is an inspiration to all who knew her. She will be missed by many. Love to you all and prayers for comfort in your sorrow~Teri
