“ Violet was such a kind, patient lady. Very easy to talk to when she was at the hospital, at her Albuquerque home or the ranch. We need more Violet's in our crazy world! We miss you. I was so happy to inherit some of your violet items which your Gail so generously shared with me. ;0)

“ From TOPS NM 0227, Albuquerque. Violet started our TOPS group many years ago and we adopted light purple (violet) and white as our colors. She was a great leader and led many of us to victorious weight losses and healthier lives. She always had a smile and gave us many great lessons on life and living. She will always be remembered by our group and TOPS NM and she will be missed. We thank God for her and for the time that we had her in our lives. Our prayers of comfort, good memories, peace and hope go out to you Gail, and to the rest of your family. Please be sure to drop in and see us any time you are in town and would like company. We love you! Anna Wood for TOPS NM 0227, Albuquerque.

“ Violet looked so perky & was so lucid & talkative last time I visited at Presbyterian. Surprised to hear she'd passed. She had a good sense of humor & praised Gail so highly when I would visit. My condolences. Margie Pino Hobby
