“ I have known Waneta for over 30 years. I met her when she volunteered to help organize her neighborhood to deal with crime and traffic problems. She was an absolutely determined to make it happen. She spent hours going door to door, setting up meetings, meeting everyone who lived there. She was a fighter when she needed to be, compassionate when anyone needed her help, fiercely independent, extremely dependable and always ready to do whatever needed to be done. I will always think of her tiny little body and huge heart as one of the true angels I have known in my lifetime.

I will forever miss her kindness. Mary Lou Haywood Spells retired Neighborhood Coordinator for the City of Albuquerque.

“Waneta will be missed by the many souls she touched in her life in our Neiborhood. I recall the deep freindship she had with my Grandmother Dorthy Howard while my Grandfather Thomas Howard work all day. I also recall Waneta kept a close eye on surrounding properties as other people worked and if she ever witnessed anything suspicious, she would notify people when they came home. For many years, she volunteered in the Victory Hills neiborhood association to help keep Property values high and Crime low. Thanks to Waneta & the efforts of the Victory Hills association, our street (Santa Clara) was blocked off in favor of a higher level of safety & lower amounts of traffic
