Bob and I were very sad when we read your Dad's obituary. Bob is in the hospital or we would attend his service today. Please accept our condolences for your family.

Billy, Bob fondly remembers your work for him at his law office. He has been retired for 8 years now but wants you to know how much he appreciated working with you.

Sincerely,

Bob and Rita Maguire

“ I will truly miss you, my friend! We shared many good times on the basketball court, softball fields and baseball fields. You were the best "balls and strike" umpires that I had the privilege of working with. May you rest in eternal peace.
