“ God bless you grandma and family. We love you all very much. Its so hard to think that grandpa is gone but i realize that he will never have to suffer again. He is now in an even better place now. Grandpa use to love to go fishing and hunt. I remember the times when grandpa would bring back elk and make elk jerky. It's was always so good and very tough just like he has been for years. I will never forget when austin was little and. He use to get really happy to see grandpa cause he looked like Santa Clause too. From this day on i feel like i can hear his laugh like he is still here. Love you grandma of you ever need anything ill be there to help.
