“ Dear Barbara and family,

I was saddened to see the news of your mother's death. She always had a warm smile, and it was always a pleasure to see her. I'm so glad I ran into you both in the hospital a few weeks ago. My thoughts and prayers are with you. I will be thinking of your mother and all of you tomorrow.

In sympathy,

“ Barbara, Jackie, Chris, Mike and Steve

I am sorry to know of your Mother Wilma's passing. What a special woman and Mother! She always gave of herself and never faltered raising you. I understand and know your grief. It is never easy to lose a parent, especially such a beautiful, caring, and faithful woman like Wilma. This poem by Robert Frost sums it up for me as I remember and cherish "Mrs. Brandt"

*Nature's first green is gold,
Her hardest hue to hold.
Her early leaf's a flower;
But only so an hour.
Then leaf subsides to leaf.
So Eden sank to grief,
So dawn goes down to day.
Nothing gold can stay.*

*With love always,
Annette*

“ I grew up across the street from the Brandts. I always remember going to the house and Mrs. Brandt was baking cookies, rolls or something. She was a great mother and she will be missed. Steve, Mike, Jackie, Chris and Barb...you will all be in my thoughts and prayers. Sincerely,

“ As Director of Adrian Dominican Associate Life, I had the privilege of meeting Wilma, and receiving her cards and yearly updates. She was a loving, devoted follower of Jesus and she adored her family. What a gift she was to Associate Life.

I am sending the prayers and concern to Wilma's children and grandchildren on behalf of the Congregation and the many Sisters and Associates who knew Wilma and have been praying for her.

I am grateful to have known Wilma.

Lovingly

Wilma was part of our 3 person accounting team in DOIM when I started at UNM over 30 years ago. I enjoyed working with her for several years. What I remember about Wilma is her smile, her strength, her faith and most importantly, her love for her children. She defined the meaning of "Mother Bear." RIP, Wilma.

“ Wilma Brandt was a warm, loving caring person. She was dedicated to service to her family, friends and anyone who needed a helping hand. She gave me moral support when I needed it. She was a part of our family....Luther and I and our children and grandchildren had great respect for her. Wilma directed us spiritually if we asked her advice and had a quiet strength that helped us through some difficult periods in our lives. We loved her and will miss her greatly. The Johnson Family
